STOP IT!

In another column appears a notice signed by a number of the candidates protesting against a list of appointments sent out last week for speaking before the primary. The appointments were gotten up without the knowledge of the candidates and a number of them do not give it their sanction. The gentleman who made out the list and sent them abroad, did a thing that the people nor the party will at this time hardly approve. It has never been the custom of the candidates for county offices here to make a list of appointments to speak before a primary election, and it is not probable that there will be a deviation from the rule in the present instance. Of course the right of free speech is denied to no one, but in an organization like the Democratic party, the members of which are supposed to be governed by rules, customs and regulations, adopted practically for the best interest of the cause, there should be a concert of action by all, else we may go down in defeat. Speech making at this time is not considered practicable, if so the subject would doubtless have been discussed among the candidates earlier in the action. Such a course among the friends of the party only serves to bring about a great deal of disorder and contention that is not easily gotten over. The Gross-Richardson contest last fall is a pretty fair sample of what too much speaking brings on before a primary. The candidates really have but little to speak about and our opinion is that this matter should be nipped in the bud, and the bulk of the fire reserved for the enemy. The News in expressing this opinion does so for the good of the party at large and not to gratify the notions of any particular candidate. Those gentlemen are able to look after themselves, but let us maintain the success of our party at all hazards. Give us a quiet canvass.

At last a definite time has been set for the coming of the end of the world. J. S. Willis, a faith doctor, of St. Louis, says the trumpet will sound Thursday, March 6th, 1894 at 3 o'clock p.m. The Doctor must be a little off, we have understood that that event was to occur in the early morn.

To those Republican editors who are still shootin' anvil because Pennsylvania went Republican, we would say, "Just wait 'till we hear from Texas."

Any candidate who has the arrogance to persist in speaking when nobody wants to hear him, will do it at his own peril.

WATER works will benefit every citizen in the community.

Gen. Jubal A. Early, of Louisiana State Lottery fame, is dead.

The campaign in Meade will open up in full blast Tuesday, March 20.

WATER works will reduce the price of insurance in this town one-third or one-half.

PHILADELPHIA has more women saloon-keepers than any other city in the country.

MARCH came in very quietly, but it is only an indication of some pretty lively weather before she goes out.

MR. WHITE, of Louisiana, has been nominated and confirmed as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

THERE was many a sod turned under last Monday. The farmers are going to work in earnest and preparing for a big crop.

DON'T be indifferent to the water works question. Don't say they can't be built. Say they can and must be built, and we will have them.

TAKING stock in the water works is not a contribution. It is an investment and it will pay a better per cent than government bonds or bank stock either.

If the moss on any man's back is thick enough to cause him to oppose water works, let him keep his head closed 'till we get 'em, then do the kicking afterward.

Of course any candidate has a perfect right to make winy speeches the county over if he wants to, but he should remember that the voters have their say April 7.

MAJOR C. W. Fowler is an announced candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instructions. The Major is one of the best educators in the state, and his election would add much to the cause of education.

THERE is not a man in this town but who can, if he will, take a little stock in the water works. If it is only one share it helps that much, and makes you interested to that extent in the success of the enterprise.

MR. FERRY is made out of the right kind of stuff. He don't say go on boys, but he says come on and at the same time 'planks down his money. This town ought to have more men made out of the same kind of material as Mr. Ferry.

THAT was a wise thing in the committee to make the shares of stock small. It enables the working classes who are striving to lay up a portion of their earnings to invest in a good paying stock and at the same time help to build up and improve their town.

We want bold, brave, dead-game Democrats, to do our fighting before the enemy. Men who can stand up and defend Democracy, its principles and doctrines. Men in whom every Democrat can take a pride in voting for and talking for. Give us live, pushing, energetic nominees and we'll carry the day in November.

Rev. B. A. Copass was with us Saturday and Sunday to fill his regular appointments in the Baptist church at Ashburne, of the Western Recorder, being here in behalf of his paper delivered three splendid sermons in his stead.

Our town escaped almost miraculously Friday of being consigned to ashes. The store of J. W. Wadlington caught from a defective flue, and in five minutes from the time it was discovered it would have been beyond the control of any assistance, the buildings being so close the entire square, and perhaps one end of town would have gone had not Mr. Roland Smith in passing, accidentally seen the smoke issuing from the roof.

Miss Nettie Cashman contemplates going to school at Hardinsburg, the first of April. That don't look like she will need the house on the hill.

IT'S A FAKE.

Notices Posted all Over The County For the Candidates Speaking.

Done Without Authority or Consent From Committees or Candidates.

THEY WILL NOT SPEAK.

Some enemy to Democracy, or person who desires to see the peace and harmony which now hovers over the democratic party in Brecklenridge county disturbed, has published by posters a list of appointments for public speaking, by the candidates before the Democratic primary.

This was done without the knowledge or consent of the candidates or consultation of the Democratic Committee. It is purely without authority, and it is unwarranted. The people don't want it, the party don't want it, and the candidates will not be there.

The following notices explain themselves:

NOTICE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS.

To the democrats of Brecklenridge county:—There has been circulated throughout Brecklenridge county within the past week, a list of appointments for the candidates to be voted for at the coming primary election to be held on April 7th, next. We wish to say to the Democrats of Brecklenridge county, that this list of appointments was made by a man who is neither a committeeman nor a candidate, and that none of the undersigned were questioned as to whether such appointments would be made and that it was done without our knowledge or consent.

We further wish to say that we are opposed to public speaking on the part of Democratic candidates before the primary. Such an action would be contrary to the course Democratic candidates for county offices have adopted in all the preceding history of Brecklenridge politics, would generate bitterness within our own lines, as a result of dealing in personalities and be detrimental in every way to the interests of the party and of its nominees in the coming campaign.

Besides, this being a very busy season of the year the farmers have no time to listen to chimney-corner orations. We take this method of notifying the Democrats of Brecklenridge county that we had nothing to do with the making of the aforesaid appointments, that it does not meet with our approval and that we will not participate in any public discussion during this campaign. Owing to the fact of our not being able to see all the candidates before publication this paper does not represent the sentiment of all the office seekers.

J. S. DeJennette, M. M. Tate, Peter Lyons, Milton Board, Chas. B. Miller, F. K. Rhodes, Elijah Board, V. G. Babbage, R. C. Richardson, J. W. Jarrett, T. B. Henderson, J. D. Beeler, Thos. L. Wroe.

TAKE NOTICE CANDIDATES.

I learn that a list of appointments for speaking by the candidates for the several nominations by the Democratic primary, have been posted throughout the county. This list has been made without any authority of the County Committee and I am informed without the knowledge or consent of the candidates.

The candidates are not under any obligation to take notice of the appointments thus made, and I think, should not, unless all those running for any office agree to fill them.

D. R. MURRAY, Ch'm'n.

MT. JOSEPH.

Mr. Reubin Reynolds is ill at this writing.

Mr. David Kingsley Rowe, was here on business Friday.

James King went to Illinois Monday where he expects to work this summer.

Miss Nannie Adams, Tobinsport, was the guest of Mrs. Weatherholt, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. W. A. Smith has sold his farm to Mr. Joshua D. Powers, of Owensboro.

Candidates are not so plentiful now but plenty of them yet.

Messrs. Board & Claycomb, insurance agents at Holt, were here insuring some last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ahl and little daughter, Bula, Cloverport, visited relatives here, Saturday and Sunday.

Joseph Carter left for Moweaqua, Ill., last Thursday. His brother Frank will follow in a few days.

We have prayer meeting every Wednesday night; Sunday school every Tuesday evening and preaching the second and fourth Sundays in each month.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely. Mr. W. E. Minor gave us a nice little talk after school Sunday evening.

The few pretty days last week made it look a great deal like spring had come and the farmers were moving things lively. Candor Black came home with two or three new plows in his wagon, Saturday evening.

For all the river was very rough Sunday, Walter K. was on time just the same, said he knew it was a little dangerous to cross, but he had a book over there he was bound to go after.

A certain young man of this place did look at the west bound train awful hard Sunday. We supposed it was because Miss Minnie Boultinghouse of Addison, was on it, going to Cannelton to make that place her home.

Died at her home near this place, Saturday night, the 3d inst., of heart trouble, Mrs. Harrison DeHaven. The deceased was a good colored, Christian woman, and leaves a husband and several children and many friends to mourn her loss. We sympathize with the family in their sad bereavement.

BRANDENBURG.

Chas. Coleman was in Louisville last week.

Gene Guedry was in Sunday to see his Unclemona.

Miss Jennie Ditto is in Louisville to visit Mr. Thos. Ditto.

Mrs. J. W. Richardson is practicing parts of the "Holy City."

Mrs. Wm. Bowling has been very low from nervous prostration.

Mr. Elisha Bondurant made a business trip to Louisville last week.

Miss Nellie Lewis was, beyond a doubt, on the street Saturday.

Mrs. D. W. Lewis has had catarrh of the hand, not the head, but is about well.

Georgia Helmsstetter has a handsome upright piano and is justly proud of it.

Mr. Richard Hagan, candidate for sheriff, was a guest of Mr. Rhodes last week.

Hon. B. F. Willett and his brother, Richard, for County Clerk, were here last Saturday.

Hon. Chapeze Wathen spent Sunday with his wife and went to Elizabethtown Monday on legal business.

Brother Cherry and his two little daughters, Mary and Dacie, are visiting relatives in Bowling Green.

Mr. Geo. Lyddan not only goes to Guston on fourth Sundays, but comes to Brandenburg on week days.

I was pleased to meet Mrs. Ella Ditto on the street last Saturday. She is not entirely well, but improving steadily.

Miss Eliza Johnson and brother, Mr. Albert Johnson, were in Louisville last week combining business with pleasure.

It is quite the fact now, so a society lady informs me, to be like the chameleon. Don't think, tho', Mrs. J. W. Richardson is my informant.

Mrs. Geo. Clarkson spent last week here with her sisters and brother. She will visit her daughter, Mrs. O'Connor, of Elizabethtown, shortly.

Little Lula Woolfolk is a bright music pupil. Orla McIntyre has taken a piece, Ruth Phillips has begun the a-b-c of music. The older pupils are progressing.

Now this is not a snake or fish story but Mrs. Judge Rawlings actually has bought a wagon load of straw from Wm. M. Ditto to make hen nests; she has such prolific fowls.

Miss Fannie Price entertained a few friends very pleasantly several evenings since. Progressive conversation, walking and refreshments constituted the program.

Saturday morning at 5 o'clock a fine specimen of the female persuasion arrived at Dr. Robt. Dowden's. Still another girl body to swell the number of Brandenburg's list. Mother and babe doing well.

Mrs. Alonzo Moremen's little grandson, Drury, about eighteen months old, fell from a second story window last Thursday and wonderful to relate received no serious bruises or broken limbs. Dr. Wells reports him all right.

The sun shone as brightly last Saturday as May day, hence, the street was thronged with pedestrians and equestrians. Miss Nellie McGeehee was a veritable Diana in her riding habit, while Miss Emma Dee McGeehee was attired in a handsome walking costume.

Mr. and Mrs. Gough went to Louisville last Thursday to attend a concert in which their grand daughter, Miss Agnes Malin, took a prominent part. She rendered two violin solos and accompanied several numbers with piano. Miss Agnes returned last Saturday night for a rest, but expects to resume her violin studies.

I welcome dear old Garrett items to this paper and hope we shall hear regularly from that pen. Guston, too, returns after a slumber. Keep awake and use your quill weekly. So many letters last week and all first class. Don't grow weary, but let us keep right along in line 'till '85 anyhow. Will you all? Answer.

When we are tempted to repeat gossip should we pause long enough to ask three questions, often the tongue would cleave to the roof of our mouths. First, "Is it kind?" Second, "Is it true?" Third, "Is it necessary?" Like feathers scattered by the wind, our unkind words cannot be recalled, but bruise and wound forever.

George Benham's little son, three years old, was burned to death last Friday. Dr. Pusey was
